

Breaking Down Barriers

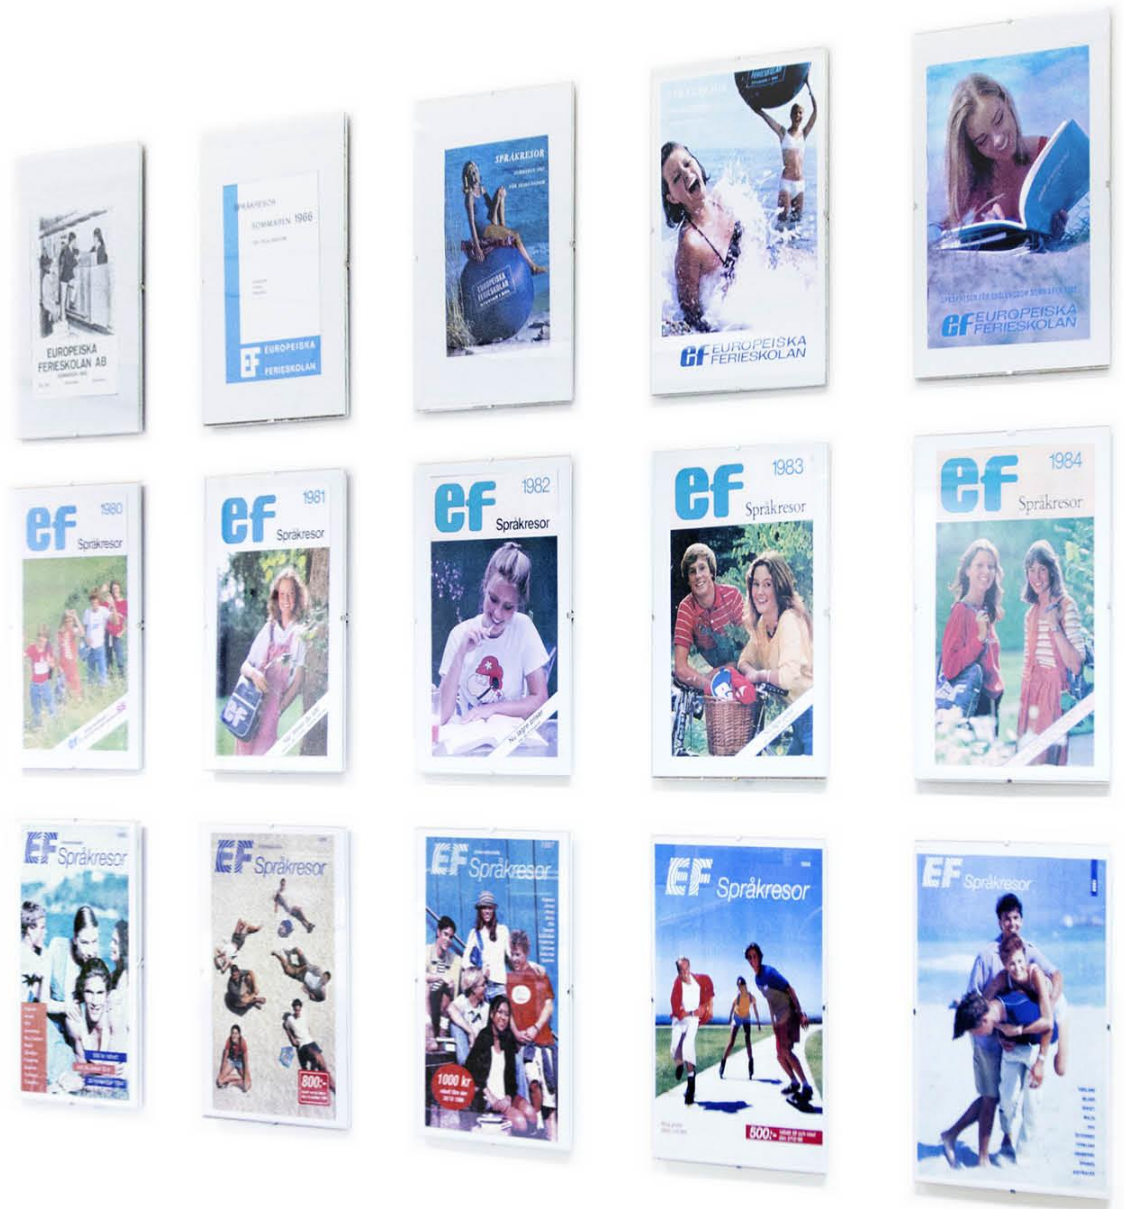

“EF’s mission is simple: to break down the barriers of language, culture, and geography that divide us.”

Bertil Hult
Founder, EF Education First

ABOUT EF

EF Education First was founded in Sweden in 1965 by a young entrepreneur named Bertil Hult. The concept was straightforward: take local high school students to England to learn English. It was a simple business idea—on-site language and cultural studies—but one with an enormous future.
